Herbert Victor Tempest - New Walk, Leicester

Herbert Victor Tempest

Sold

REF: 2735

Sarah Colegrave Fine Art
London & Oxfordshire
+44 (0)77 7594 3722 sarah@sarahcolegrave.co.uk

Description

HERBERT VICTOR TEMPEST
(1913-2003)

New Walk, Leicester

Inscribed with title on the reverse
Oil on board
Framed

51 by 41 cm., 20 by 16 in.
(frame size 63 by 53 cm., 24 ¾ by 20 ¾ in.)

Provenance:
The Artist’s Estate;
Private collection.

Tempest was born in Swaffham, Norfolk and studied at Woolwich Polytechnic School of Art (1927-32) and the Royal College of Art (1932-36). He exhibited at the Royal Academy, New English Art Club and Royal Society of British Artists as well as at numerous regional venues. He lived at Plumstead, south east London and later in Keston, Kent.

Tempest's painting of Leicester Museum is in the collection of Leicester Museum and Art Gallery. Works by him are also held in the collections of the Royal Academy of Arts and Wolverhampton Art Gallery.