Joseph Southall - Study for Saint Dorothea

Joseph Edward Southall

Sold

REF: JS7

Sarah Colegrave Fine Art
London & Oxfordshire
+44 (0)77 7594 3722 sarah@sarahcolegrave.co.uk

Description

JOSEPH SOUTHALL, RWS, NEAC, RBSA(1861-1944)
Study for “St Dorothea and Her Two Sisters Refusing to Worship the Idol”, 1901-2
Signed with monogram and dated c.l.: JES / 1901 and inscribed (verso) Study for St DorotheaWatercolour, bodycolour and pencil on pink paper 26.5 by 13 cm., 10 ½ by 5 in.
Provenance:Hartnoll & Eyre (by 1969);Michael Gillingham:Sotheby’s London, The Gillingham Collection, 1 April 2000, lot 329;Campbell Wilson, London
Exhibited:Birmingham Museums & Art Gallery and London, Fine Art Society, Joseph Southall 1861-1944, Artist-Craftsman, 1980, no. C1
Literature:Birmingham Museums & Art Gallery, Joseph Southall 1861-1944, Artist-Craftsman, 1980, p.47.
In its entry in the Birmingham catalogue (see literature above) George Breeze describes the present work as “An exquisite example of Southall’s drawing, this study differs from the final work in the head-dress and folds of the drapery …”.